"From the word go Lyn understood our catering aims. The food on the day was stunning, beautifully presented, served & cooked. Lyn's whole team are a real credit to her, so professional & well organised. We had lots of comments about how our guests loved the food - with one even going on to book her for their sons wedding! Lyn did our day & eve food - this was seamless. The team cleared the tables, reorganised the barn for the band & served the evening food so well I didn't even notice it happen."

"Lin and her staff are quite simply, superb at what they do. They are friendly and professional and our guests were saying they had not tasted such wonderful food at a wedding before. Every detail is carefully thought about and attended to. It was a day we will remember all our lives and a very large part of this was down to Lin and her team. Completely exceeded our expectations."

Mrs Claire Wang (Whittaker)

"From the very start it was brilliantly professional Lin came out to talk about what we wanted always on the end of the phone and always kept up to date with any small changes. Her communications is one of the things that makes it so easy not to worry going into your wedding day. It was not only the food and bar than Lin was happy to help anything you asked for even flood defences. On the day it was perfect I didn't know that the generator wasn't working properly the food was fantastic."

"After our first meeting with Lin it was a massive relief knowing that our big day was going to be exactly how we wanted it and that there was going to be nothing to worry about. Lin left no stone unturned and went through everything with us in fine detail. We gave Lin our ideas of the food we wanted and asked for something different to be cooked for the children, nothing was too much trouble. We stayed in regular contact with Lin and to help us all Lin put together an itinerary including everyone"

Mrs Kelly Vaughan (Rowland)

The team were fantastic on the day, so professional and well presented. Jason in particular was so attentive and seemed well in control of everything on the floor while Lin was busy in the kitchen. The food was incredible and so many people commented on how much they enjoyed it. Can't thank them enough."

"Lin and Paul were experienced and confident in their recommendations. Advice was given to help us achieve the reception we wanted for a price we could afford. In the lead up to the event they had everything set up efficiently and kept us informed at every move. On the day the service was seamless and the quality of food outstanding. We had many guests say it was the best food they have ever had at a wedding and we have to agree with them. Nothing was too much trouble for them or their team."

"We held our wedding in tipi tents the company did hire bars out, but we decided against it once we had seen lap bars. It was put in a couple of days before the wedding it was a real wow , couldn't believe you could get something so classey for an outdoor wedding. The staff were fantastic, so friendly towards my guests everyone complemented me on them. The bar and glasses were cleared away the following day so none of the other suppliers were held up. We will definatly be using them again."

Why They Booked (in random order)

"LAP was recommended to us alongside a couple of other catered by our wedding venue. My husband had a couple of phone chats with Lin and immediately felt relaxed and happy with Lins standards and capabilities. We met to discuss ideas and Lins fun and friendly personality really made the difference for us. We could chat and bounce ideas around and did not feel like we were restricted to a set menu and Lin told us what she felt would and wouldn't work but was pretty much up for any of our ideas. She had a 'let's give it a go' way of thinking to everything! Lin was so much more than a caterer in our wedding and we could ask her advice on anything and she was always there to support or make us laugh when times got a bit stressful! Lin hired a car and drove back through the night from Edinburgh the day before our wedding after her flight got cancelled, all to meet us at 9am the day before and check we were happy with table lay out etc. You can't ask for much better than that!"

Mrs Megan Rapps
